Wallpaper* reveals the brightest young creative talent

Wallpaper*, the international design, fashion and lifestyle magazine, is celebrating the bright young stars of the future in a global Graduate Directory, which is included in its January issue and also available in full on www.wallpaper.com with a definitive guide to 100 creatives teetering on greatness.

The annual Graduate Directory gives a heads up on who'll be planning the world's cities, monopolising the catwalks, designing living spaces and bringing new gastronomic delights.

Wallpaper* editor-in-chief Tony Chambers says: "This year's directory is our most far-reaching yet, spanning colleges across the globe and covering design, architecture, fashion, graphic design, photography, perfume, food and travel."

Continuing the talent theme, the January issue looks at mentors and protégés and explores their mutually rewarding relationships. Oliviero Toscani, photographer and creator of the revolutionary campaign for Benetton, talks about his intellectual muse Alex Marashian. The special mentor-protégé relationship between the world's most famous hairdresser Vidal Sassoon and Michael Gordon of Bumble and Bumble is revealed. In addition Robin and Lucienne Day, Jean-Paul Guerlain, Robert Venturi and Pierre Paulin, talk about their respective protégés.

The January issue of Wallpaper* is on-sale 11 December
